PUBLIC SESSION

There were no speakers during the public comment period.

BUSINESS TO BE DISCUSSED AND/OR ACTED UPON:

1. Jordan Thomas, President of Wallburg Athletic Booster along with the booster treasurer, Brian Riley, attended the meeting to introduce themselves to the town council. They thanked the council for their past support and detailed their upcoming goals to improve the ball field grounds. They are needing sufficient lighting for their smaller field. They plan to submit an application for a grant from the town.
2. Marilyn Wells – Waste Management – The town council and Ms. Wells discussed the logistics of the transition of the new trash pick up service. Until new trash cans arrive and are delivered to town residents Waste Management will pick up trash in bags or old GFL cans on the day of the resident's service until all settled. The town has Tuesday and Wednesday trash pickup. Information can be found at www.townofwallburg.com and/or call Waste Management at 336-723-2784 option #1 or email at winstonop@wm.com
3. The town council discussed and agreed that each Town of Wallburg business/church that is located within the town limits will receive one trash can and one recycle can.
