BUSINESS TO BE DISCUSSED AND/OR ACTED UPON:

1. The Town's CPA, Eddie Carrick was present and presented the 2013-2014 audit report. Mr. Carrick thanked the council for allowing him to serve the Town of Wallburg. He is available any time for any questions or concerns. The town has received a clean opinion and had a good year. The major difference in this audit is the town park construction. The expenses have remained in line. He commended the town's accountant Don Jackson for an excellent job. Mr. Carrick commended the town council for their continued conservative approach in the town's finances.

Councilman Mark Swaim thanked Mr. Carrick on behalf on the town council and finance committee.

2. Councilman Steve Yokeley and the park planning committee met with Mr. Kron on October 23rd. There have been three concepts produced from the public planning meeting that was previously held. In the agenda packets is a proposed plan that will be fine-tuned. The town hall park planning committee is planning to present the master park plan to the town council at the December council meeting.
